NORTHWESTERN IMPROVEMENT CO. START MINING ON RANGE

TO SINK SHAFT ON FEIGH IRON LAND

Located in 10-46-29 Near Iron-ton--- Temporary Spur Being Built by Northern Pacific Railway

To Ship in 1918--Locally Carl Zappfe, Geologist, will Superintend Development Work

The Northwestern Improvement company, through its subsidiary, the Cuyuna Realty company, has entered the list of Cuyuna operators.

The company has for several years carried a lease on property in section 10, 46-29, near Iron-ton, owned by Thomas Feigh, of Duluth, and is now getting material together for sinking a shaft.

Erick A. Olson, of Iron-ton, has been awarded the contract for erecting an office and warehouse building; other permanent buildings will be erected in the spring.

A temporary spur is being laid by the Northern Pacific Railway company, mining timber will be delivered this winter, and shaft sinking will be started as soon as the material arrives.

The operation will be entirely underground and the property will be developed with the idea of shipping the first ore in 1918.

A westerly part of the property was recently sub-leased to the Hill Mines company, who are stripping it with hydraulic machinery used at their Hillcrest mine adjoining.

The sinking of the shaft at the Feigh mine is being directed by E. E. Hunner, general superintendent of the Iron ore mining operations for the Great Northern Railway company on the Mesabi range, and locally, Carl Zappfe, geologist for the Northwestern Improvement company, superintends the work.

Mr. London became ill and was found found unconscious by a servant who went to his room to awaken him. His condition at first alarmed his sister, Mrs. Eliza Shepard, who summoned physicians.

Dr. J. Wilson Shields of San Francisco, a close friend of the writer, came later and declared the patient's condition was grave.

From the time Mr. London was found until death came he did not regain consciousness.

ENGAGEMENT THREE DAYS LONG

Berlin Gives Battle Account Delayed by Wish of Commander Until He Was Sure of Success--Heavy Rumanian Losses Reported.

Berlin, Nov. 23.—After a long silence imposed by the direct wish of General Falkenhayn, who did not wish to have any hopes raised by premature accounts of his operations, descriptions of the momentous victory of the Teutonic forces in the battle of Targu-Jiu, which broke the resistance of the Russo-Rumanian armies in Western Wallachia and opened the way to the Rumanian plain, are now available.

The battle was fought from Nov. 15 to 17, after the German and Austro-Hungarian forces, in a week of steady combats, had forced their way from the summit of the mountains on the Rumanian-Transylvanian frontier to the foot of the Alpine regions. Ejected from the wild, mountainous regions to the rolling foothills beyond, the Rumanians, who by now had received heavy Russian reinforcements, elected to stand on the range of hills running east and west and lying south of Targu-Jiu.

Fog Helps Rumanians.
A heavy fog enabled the Rumanians to take up their positions unopposed.

The German and Austro-Hungarian forces crashed their way by frontal attacks through the middle of the Rumanian line from the Jiu to the Gilort rivers. The Rumanian losses in the battle are described as very heavy.

The German cavalry, held in readiness behind the line, poured through the breach and raced down through the valley towards the railway, thirty miles away, driving before them the fleeing Russians and Rumanians, breaking the efforts at resistance of all but the strongest units. These were hustled on by pursuing infantry columns.

The pursuing forces of General Falkenhayn continued to sweep like a flood down the valley and have reached a point just outside of Orsova.

SUCCESSFUL AIR RAID

(By United Press)
London, Nov. 23.—An official report says that a successful air raid against the German hydroplanes and naval forces at Sea Bruges was made yesterday, the naval aeroplanes bombarding the seaplanes, sheds and German destroyers anchored alongside. A destroyer was hit and the sheds damaged.

An interesting feature of the afternoon Thursday at the Farmers Short Course was the adjournment of the attending farmers and friends at the sessions at the Chamber of Commerce to the farms of James M. Elder and Fred H. Gruenhagen, where dairy and beef stock judging were demonstrated by John Bowers.

W. S. Moscrip, of Lake Elmo, noted breeder of Holsteins, and a judge of cattle of international reputation, was unable to be present Thursday, having been detained in Minneapolis where he was called in conference at the Twin City Milk Producers meeting.

Business men of the city had their cars in readiness at the Chamber of Commerce and the farmers and other visitors at the Short Course were their guests and were whirled out to the two farms, where pure bred Herefords and Holsteins were shown.

In the morning W. L. Cavert spoke on the profits of a representative Crow Wing county farm and how they were made. On a 140 acre tract the farmer had earned 6 percent on his investment, received $250 for his labor, had house rental, milk, butter, eggs, potatoes and other vegetables free. Seven acres had been planted in corn, 1 1/4 in potatoes, 3 acres in wheat, 25 acres in oats, 15 acres in timothy and clover hay.

Many farmers of the county had inaugurated a regular bookkeeping system. Mr. Cavert advised keeping hogs in this county only when skim milk and other waste material might profitably be fed them. R. R. Wise and several others present disagreed with the lecturer, as Crow Wing county is showing itself especially well adapted to the raising of hogs and their regular feeding.

R. S. Mackintosh gave an illustrated lecture on horticulture, the potting of plants, etc. In the intermission the Brainerd Musical club gave a fine program.

In the afternoon W. L. Cavert spoke on increasing profits through farm accounts. The stock judging took place out in the country at the farms mentioned.

EIGHT-HOUR LAW IS HELD INVALID

Kansas City, Nov. 23.—The Adamson railway wage law was held unconstitutional by Judge William C. Hook in the United States district court.

Judge Hook directed the receivers of the Missouri, Oklahoma and Gulf railroad, who brought the original action in this case, to enjoin the law from going into effect, to assist the government in expediting the case to the supreme court of the United States for final decision, and instructed them through their attorneys to invite the representatives of every railroad in this country to participate in the hearings before the highest court in the land.

This was requested in the government's motion to dismiss the injunction petition of the railroad, the government desiring to avoid "prolonged, unnecessary and scattered litigation through the hearing of countless similar suits filed by every rail system in every federal district in the United States through which their lines run."
It is expected the ultimate decision as to whether the law will go into operation Jan. 1 will be handed down before that time. A transcript of the present case will be filed at the supreme court before it reconvenes Dec. 4.

RAIL CHIEFS WANT TEST CASE

But Disagree With Government on Which Suit Is to Be Chosen.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Attorney General Gregory and lawyers speaking for most of the important railroad systems of the country were in conference several hours, but failed to agree on terms by which one of the many railroad suits attacking the Adamson act might be made a test for an early decision on its constitutionality.

There was no indication that the differences cannot be reconciled.
Although officials familiar with supreme court procedure were not inclined to believe that a decision could be had by Jan. 1, department officers were hopeful that a way would be found to do so.

PRAIRIE SCHOONERS ATTRACT

Three Families from Graceville Travel in Houses Built on Wagons on way to Aitkin County

Three prairie schooners, several horses and a string of buggies lined up in front of the postoffice this morning attracted the attention of the early morning callers at Uncle Sam's distributing point. An inquiry of the man in charge elicited the information that the caravan was from Graceville and was on its way to Aitkin county where the party would look for work in the woods during the winter and probably find homes there in the meantime. The houses were built on hay racks of canvas and ticking stretched over hoops and buttoned down so that the gracing atmosphere of the crisp November morning did not penetrate to the inner portals. Household utensils and furniture was strapped onto every conceivable place of the moving caravan, tubs, oil stoves, pots, pans and kettles being much in evidence. In an early day people moving through the country in this style did not attract the attention of the general public and only the children were interested and they congregated at the camping places in admiration of that style of living.

PARRAL REFUGEES AT NOGALES, ARIZ.

Nogales, Ariz., Nov. 23.—What happened at Parral when bandits rode in to that city was told here by four weary Americans, emaciated after seventeen days' travel over mountain and desert, making quick dashes at night and hiding throughout the day.
Safe and sound in an American hospital, F. J. Hawkins, Jr., Lewis Webb, Bernard McDonald and A. W. Morris told their stories when they awoke refreshed from twenty hours' sleep.

At the head of 5,000 men, they said,
Villa himself rode into Parral Nov. 3.
Carranza troops offered no opposition.
The bandit's first act was to imprison all foreigners.

The four Americans fled. Two hundred and fifty miles across the mountains infested with Yaqui Indians and Villa's sympathizers they fled on foot until they reached Chihuahua, whence they came to the border by rail.

Mr. Webb and Mr. McDonald are certain eight Americans were caught in Parral when Villa swept in. Mr.
Hawkins believes all eight have been massacred, but the others think there is a possibility they escaped.

Fifty Chinese and twenty Syrians and Turks were massacred by Villa's orders, according to word received by the four Americans while they were hiding outside Parral, just before they started for the border.

CAPITAL ATTACK EXPECTED

Villa Reported Between Santa Rosalia and Chihuahua City.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 23.—Carranza officials on the border here say they expect Villa and his main column to attack Chihuahua City soon. Villa is reported to be between Santa Rosalia and the state capital with his command, having moved from Parral to the main line of the Mexican Central railroad, north of Santa Rosalia. Reports of skirmishes between the Carranza forces and Villa bandits are received daily in Juarez.

Are the clam beds of the Mississippi between McGregor and Winona playing out or is it just an incentive to get more business from the bed of the Mississippi river that has induced pearl button makers to explore the waters to the north. In years gone by the banks of the father of waters from Winona down were heaped with clam shells that had been opened in the search for fresh water pearls and the shells piled up for sale at from $5 to $16 per ton, and a drug on the market. Benidji reports that a Stillwater pearl button manufacturer has been in that city offering $25 per ton for shells and that a search for clam beds is to be made.

It will be more difficult to get the presents to hang on the Christmas tree this year than it will be to get the tree, many of the former having been tilled on trinkets and toys that are accessible. The prices and size of the trees remain the same.

The Minneapolis garbage man, the fellow who has access to the discard from the tables and kitchens of that city, says that little food is now wasted in that city. The time when whole loaves of bread and things like that were found in the garbage receiver has gone, while nothing but scraps are now found.

Sam Clark, well known Minnesota newspaperman but now publisher of the Jim Jam Jems, with his home at Blomark, was married yesterday in Chicago and after a honey-moon tour of a month in this country will go to Europe for a year's travel. It evidently pays to publish "Jems." Sam's Minnesota friends are showering congratulations upon him.

A young lady in a neighboring town awoke to find a burglar in her room and as she looked his flashlight failed. Handing him a match she pointed out her purse and jewel case, both were empty. The polite gentleman thanked her for her trouble, backed out of the room and disappeared.

Dr. Aldrich, of the St. Paul dental school, has set a new pace, if the statement accredited to him that defective teeth, improperly cared for, may develop alcohol in the system which will cause their owner to reel and talk foolishly, is true.

Border Training Adds Years to Life

By Webb Miller.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 23.—About 150,000 years is being added to the aggregate life of the population of the United States by the Mexican "situation." Instead of spreading death and dismemberment the campaign in Mexico and the mobilization of the national guard is adding from a few months to years to the life of every civilian soldier, army physicians declare. Statisticians have figured that the average added to the life of each guardsman will be nearly a year.

After four to six month of training like an athlete, working in the open air, sleeping in a tent and eating simple food a hundred thousand guardsmen will go back to civil life with a new lease on life.

Major James F. Edwards of the medical corps of the Pennsylvania militia has been making a close study of the general effects of the intensive training upon these men drawn from office, factory and farm. In civil life he is director of public health of the city of Pittsburgh.

"Nearly every man on the border will be benefited immeasurably by the training he is undergoing," said Major Edwards. In most cases the instruction in personal hygiene and right living will influence the militiamen for years.

"Even now the difference in the health of our men can be noticed. Several months of daily exercise in the open air and sleeping in a tent cannot but benefit. It is worth a dozen vacations rolled into one.

"But most important is the effect of the army diet. Most civilians eat too much. And intemperance in eating is more dangerous than any form of intemperance. For four months our men have been eating the simple palatable army ration. They don't eat too much and the food value of what they get is computed scientifically. This regime with plenty of exercise cannot fail to add something to the lives of our citizen-soldiers."

But there is no pleasing everybody. To the man undergoing this training it sometimes loses the vacation—physical training—tinge and becomes just hard labor.

"Huh," said one guardsman drilling in the sun when told he was adding one year to his life. "Izzat so, well, well, I'll give three off the other end of my life to go home now."

Starts Campaign

(By United Press)

New York, Nov. 23.—The annual Christmas campaign of the Committee on Prevention of Tuberculosis of the National Red Cross, to raise funds for use in stamping out the White Plague is under way today. Nine million of the little "seals" for adornment of Christmas packages are now available at the New York headquarters. It is expected that at least three and one-half millions will be sold in New York.

Out of experience of former years warning has been issued that the "seals" are not postage. They are merely decorations. Persons using them on mail packages are cautioned not to forget to put on the required number of postage stamps as well.

MODERN HEALTH CRUSADERS FORMED

New Society being Launched as an Adjunct to the Anti-Tuberculosis Campaign

OBJECT OF THE ORGANIZATION

Will Organize School Children as Health Crusaders, the Five Rules to be Obeyed

(Minnesota Public Health Association Old Capitol, St. Paul)

In order to interest the 20,000,000 school-children of the United States in the Anti-Tuberculosis Campaign, the boys and girls will be organized into Modern Health Crusaders, a new society being formed under the direction of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis and announced in a bulletin issued recently.

Any boy or girl in the United States, not less than 5 nor more than 18, who sells or buys at least 10 Red Cross Seals, and who agrees to the Crusaders Health Rules, will receive a certificate of enrollment. When he sells 25 to 50 Seals, he gets a button and becomes a scout, and when he reaches 100 to 200 seals, a silver pin with the rank of knight. Those who sell 500 seals get a gold pin with the rank of knight banneret. Leagues of Modern Health Crusaders will be formed in connection with schools, clubs, churches and other organizations. These will become part of State Legions and later of the National Legion.

"The object of these organizations," says Chas. M. DeForest, National Red Cross Seal Sales Manager, "is not to secure money for the Anti-Tuberculosis movement but rather to give the children definite tasks whereby they can help the health campaign. Every boy and girl must promise to try his best to keep the following rules:

"1. Always breathe fresh air. Never study, work nor play in a room without a window open. Take ten deep breaths every day.

"2. Eat nourishing food and chew it thoroughly. Drink plenty of pure water and use your own cup. Avoid food that is hard to digest, like heavy pie and cake and anything candy. Never eat nor drink anything that weakens the body, like alcoholic drinks.

"3. Make sure that everything you put in your mouth is clean. Wash your hands always before eating and bathe your whole body often. Clean your teeth every day. Have a regular time every day for attending to each need of your body.

"4. Exercise every day in the open air. Keep your shoulders straight. Do not smoke before you are grown up.

"5. Get a long night's sleep. Get up smiling. Keep your mind clean and cheerful.

"We hope to give the local leagues other work to do during the year as, for example, in clean-up campaigns; distributing literature, swatting flies, etc. As these leagues will all be a part of regular anti-tuberculosis associations, we shall not be multiplying organizations needlessly, but rather we shall be crystallizing an already well defined public health enthusiasm in a way that promises real results."

The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, 195 East 22nd Street, New York, will send a circular on organization of Modern Health Crusaders to any one on request.

PUBLIC SKATING RINK

Young Men ask Chamber of Commerce to Assist in Establishing a Rink at Boom Lake

At the meeting of the Parks and Playgrounds committee of the Chamber of Commerce, of which Howard Kitchen is chairman, a group of young men headed by A. J. Turcotte, asked to have Boom lake made a public skating rink. They promised to maintain the rink if the park board would light the same and the Chamber of Commerce would build a permanent warming house, such building to remain the property of the Chamber.

The sentiment of the meeting generally favored a municipal rink and it was recommended that the Chamber of Commerce appropriate $175 for the improvement, and this will be presented to the advisory board at the next meeting.

Wm. F. Marx appeared in behalf of the toboggan club and stated the progress being made by the organization, of the slide being built and of the probability that the club would join the marching clubs representing Brainerd and appearing in line at the St. Paul winter carnival.

The matter of having a rink for the little ones, of gooding some park land for that purpose, was dismissed and some recommendation will also be made to the advisory board in this matter.

O. T. SWELLAND PASSED AWAY

Well Known Farmer of Nokav Lake Died This Morning of Heart Disease. Sick Some Time

O. T. Swelland, age 57, a well known farmer of Nokav Lake, died at 10:30 this morning of heart disease. He had been sick for some time. Death came quietly as he lay sleeping and he passed to the great beyond with a smile on his lips. He had resided on his farm and thoroughly cultivated the same for the past 19 years.

He leaves a wife, four sons, Lars Swelland, a photographer of Brainerd; Henry Swelland of Minneapolis and Theodore and Oliver Swelland of Nokav Lake; three daughters, Mrs. P. J. Johnson, Mrs. Jens Jensen and Miss Josie Swelland of this county and an adopted daughter, Miss Thelma Swelland.

The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the farm residence, Rev. Elio Carlson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church of Brainerd, officiating. The sympathy of the community is extended to the family in its sad bereavement.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORIES TODAY

It was at the Knights of Columbus kangaroo court and Pat McGill was haled before his august majesty, Judge W. H. Cleary. "Tell the court," said Judge Cleary sternly, "how many necks you have shaved since the barbers' new schedule went into effect."

"Four," said Mr. McGill, after some thought on the subject.

"Fine—the prisoner 20c," said the judge quickly.

And at one fell swoop McGill lost all the neck shave profit and saw it rolled into the K. C. kangaroo court coffers.

It was in district court and George W. Moody, court stenographer, was working hard taking down testimony in the Joe Builet Bush case.

The witness on the stand was asked a question by M. E. Ryan, Bush's attorney, and nodded his answer.

"Speak out loud yes or no," said Mr. Ryan to the witness. "The reporter can't hear you nod your head."

Brainerd people may not be aware of the fact that McGill is selling his ice cream bricks cheaper than either Duluth or Minneapolis retailers.

Skating is fine up north and D. M. Clark & Co. got four long distance calls, hurry-up orders for skates.

Providence has been with the deer and moose this year by holding back the fall of snow which would have betrayed their tracks to the trailing hunters. To save this wild game a closed season may soon have to be declared for several years.

Wholesale Sweet Company Hangs up a Diamond for the Salesman Making the Biggest Score

Edw. Anderson is in a fair way to wear diamonds and he certainly will if all his friends get behind him until the first of May. This is what the Duluth News-Tribune says:

Salesmen of the John Wahl Candy company are engaged in a contest that will last until May 1. A first prize of a diamond ring will be awarded to the salesman making the largest sales of sweets prior to that date. The second prize will be a set of sterling silverware, and third prize a set of pearl-handled silverware.

Hans Wahl declared the race close, with Edw. Anderson of Brainerd and E. B. Canam of Crookston in the lead.

IN DISTRICT COURT

Case Against Ceril Bourassa Went to Jury This Morning—Livingston Case Now on Trial

The trial of Ceril Bourassa, charged with retailing a quart of liquor to Ralphord James when Bourassa had only a wholesaler's license, was concluded this morning and went to the jury at 10:45 A. M.

The cases against R. R. Livingston covered by various indictments for grand larceny in the first degree and one count on forgery, were then called for trial. The selection of a jury consumed some time and after seven had been accepted and several challenged, the court had no more jurymen. An adjournment was taken shortly after 2 o'clock to wait for the other jury to come in.

As selected up to 3 o'clock, these are seven of the jurymen who will sit in judgment:

1. Charles Swanson, carpenter, Ironton.
2. P. A. Erickson, florist, Brainerd.
3. Samuel Lind, shopman, Brainerd.
4. Myron Dupey, laborer, Ironton.
5. Theodore Osborn, implement business, Ft. Ripley.
6. Wm. H. Nelson, clerk, Brainerd.
7. H. P. Dullum, retired farmer, Brainerd.

At 3:15 P. M. the jury reported in the Ceril Bourassa case and found him guilty as charged in the indictment.

GOMPERS THROWS GAUNTLET TO CAPITAL

Baltimore, Nov. 23.—In the most radical speech he has ever made, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, at the meeting of the presidents of the four railroad brotherhoods and the federation leaders threw down the gauntlet of organized labor to organized capital and cried: "Lay on, Macduff, and damned be he who first cries hold, enough!" Then the labor chiefs, overcome by the frenzy into which he had worked himself, collapsed. For a moment, after Gompers had finished, the convention was electrified and absolutely silent. Then the 400 delegates were on their feet shouting and cheering, the socialists leading the way.

Here is the Greatest Football Team

STAHL, SUTHERLAND, MC NULTY, HERRON, HASTINGS, MC LAREN, THORNHILL, SEIDEL, COACH WARNER, MORROW, GOUGLER, SIES, CAPE PECK, MILLER, DE HART, CARLSON

Here are sixteen members of the Brainerd University football crew, the young men from whom the invincible eleven is made up before every game. During all of last season and till Saturday, Nov. 18, this year only three opponents had even scored on them. The Carnegie Technological Institute on that date managed to lose by a score of 14 to 6. Harvard and Yale teams are not going to play these young men, and most football enthusiasts know why.

BUSH STEPPED ON A NEEDLE

Head Broke Off in His Foot, Surgeons Unable to Locate the Stubby Steel

$100 WATCH LOST BY HURLER

Team Will Train at Jacksonville, Florida, Next Spring—Better Contract for Bush

Joe (Bullet) Leslie Bush, native son Philadelphia Athletic pitcher, after being feted at a fine banquet by his friends, neighbors and the fans in general stepped on a needle the next morning and broke the head off in his foot. Doctors failed to locate it. Then he lost his watch, a fine $100 one given him by the national baseball commission in 1913, when he won his world's series game against the New York Giants. Bush is just a kid even at present, being but 23.

In the season just closed he established a remarkable number of shut-outs with a tall ender team. He pitched a clear cut, no hit, no run game against Cleveland on August 26 and it was for this feat that he was given the big banquet at Brainerd.

During the season Bush pitched any number of games which ran 1 to 0, 2 to 1, 2 to 0 defeats, and with a first class team back of him he was bound to lose but two games in the whole—hrs, sawtguBtpesasoAn, sylaenlp

As it was, Bush represented about 60 percent of Connie Mack's pitching staff this year.

The silent man of baseball is building up another great machine, however, and with a contract for Bush commanding a much higher salary, there will be no Philadelphia Athletics holding down any more cellar positions. The team will train at Jacksonville, Florida, as usual.

Bush rose from the sand lots of Brainerd and in one season played in the Brainerd nine, made a whirlwind run with Cliff Blankenship in his Missoula team, where Bush pitched as high as six games in a week and on one occasion won a double header and was then grabbed by Connie Mack from Missoula and managed to pitch several games for Philadelphia. Such a hop in one season from Brainerd to Missoula to Philadelphia has never before been witnessed in baseball, and stamps the kid as a wonder.

Brainerd awoke to his pitching ability in a game with St. Cloud when the Indian hurler hired flunked and Bush, who first never held down a box position but was usually placed in right field, took the mound and held St. Cloud scoreless. He pitched against the hitherto unvanquished Little Falls nine and when his support was ragged the kid gritted his teeth and won his own game, striking out 18. Nothing phases him and the Bush grin played about his mouth then as it did August 26 when Jack Graney, pinch hitter, faced him at Cleveland August 26 and threatened to break up his no hit, no run game.

EDDIE PLANK MAY GO TO YANKEES

St. Louis Flinger Figures in a Proposed Trade for Malsel, is the Report From New York

PLANK IS A FORMER ATHLETIC

Donovan Has a Fine Collection of Southpaws—Plank's Fine Record With St. Louis

If the New York Yankees are willing to give up Fritz Malsel for Plank, Eddie will get his wish of being traded to a club in the east. Plank announced some time ago that he had been well treated by the owners of the St. Louis club, but that, owing to his business interests in Pennsylvania, he desired to play with a team in this section of the country.

When Frank Baker went to the Yankees last spring, Malsel was shifted to the outfield by Manager Donovan. During the season both Malsel and Baker met with serious injuries, which greatly handicapped the Yankees in their efforts to keep up in the race.

While the Browns would be strengthened by the addition of Malsel, it is not certain that the Yankees need Plank. Donovan has a fine collection of "southpaws" and despite Plank's splendid record with St. Louis last season, "Wild Bill" may not consider that he needs another lefthander on his staff next season.

Family Preserves.

The following recipe was sent to the editor of a newspaper who had established a household column. It was evidently given by a person of experience:

To make a good jam place one finger or possibly two lightly on the upper edge of an open desk or bureau drawer close the drawer quickly with the other hand and keep closed for two or three seconds.

Open it, remove the finger or fingers adding plenty of interjections. This recipe has been tried by every member of my family and has never failed.

WILLCOX SEES NO RECOUNT

G. O. P. Chairman Learns Leads of Winners in California Range from 1,200 to 3,800 Votes—Speaks for the National Committee.

Lakewood, N. Y., Nov. 23.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for president in the recent election, sent to President Wilson a telegram congratulating him upon his re-election. In his telegram Mr. Hughes said:

"Because of the closeness of the vote I have awaited the official count in California and now that it has been virtually completed permit me to extend to you my congratulations upon your re-election. I desire also to express my best wishes for a successful administration."

Willcox in Statement.

New York, Nov. 23.—William R. Willcox, chairman of the Republican national committee, issued the following statement in reference to Mr. Hughes' telegram to President Wilson:

"Having conferred by telephone with the Republican state committee and the Republican national committee in California, I am informed that the official canvass of the vote has been so nearly completed that no change will result from the few precincts not counted in the returns thus far compiled.

Not to Ask Recount.

"This means that the majority for the Wilson electors in California ranges from about 1,200 to 3,800 votes and that this is the final result of the canvass for which we have been waiting.

"So far as any recount is concerned, the national committee is not advised that there are sufficient grounds to call for such an application."

White House Silent.

Washington, Nov. 23.—President Wilson was at a theater with Mrs. Wilson when the telegram from Mr. Hughes reached the White House and did not know of it until he returned. There was no comment.

HUGHES BETTORS GIVE UP

Heavy Wall Street Wagers Are Finally Paid.

New York, Nov. 23.—Holders of some of the largest wagers made in Wall street on the presidential election began paying the bets off on the assumption that there was now no doubt President Wilson had been elected.

Estimates of the total sum wagered in the financial district range from $300,000 to $5,000,000. Probably half was paid within a week after election but the balance was held by stakeholders pending a final agreement between bettors.

BREWERS PLANNING REFORM OF BUSINESS

Cleveland, Nov. 23.—The liquor business is going to be reformed by the liquor men themselves.

This is the chief object of the convention of the United States Brewers' association, in session here.

Apprehensive of the future because of the sweeps made by prohibitionists in recent elections, trustees have met and decided their business must be made less obtrusive. Some of the reforms they will recommend are as follows:

Abandonment of brewery signs on exterior of buildings; abolition of "treating" by proprietors; removal of all screens; separation of the retail trade from all immoral features; less obtrusive means of advertising; granting licenses only where there is public demand for it; stricter observance of hygiene and better physical upkeep.

LACK OF SNOW SAVES DEER

Wisconsin Hunters Having Poor Season With Big Game.

Marinette, Wis., Nov. 23.—Probably 5,000 fewer deer will be killed during the present season in Northern Wisconsin than would have been the case had the snow remained on the ground throughout the season, according to numerous hunters returning from the woods.

The biggest killings were made in the first few days of the season, when several inches of snow covered the ground, but since warmer weather has set in, hunters report poor success.

BANDITS MAKE BIG HAULS AND ESCAPE

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Two bands of automobile bandits made successful raids here, one on the South Side and one on the West Side.

Six men, accompanied by a woman in a black limousine held up a Great Northern Express company wagon, took off two packages and escaped. The police believe they were after packages of jewelry.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 23.—Forty thousand, nine hundred dollars was stolen from a Southern Express company transfer wagon in the Western and Atlantic railroad yards here by two men who held up the driver, Fred Cornelson.

The robbery was in the heart of the business district. The money was in packages made up for shipment from various Chattanooga banks to Southern cities.
